

Doynton Parish Pump

The next playing field quiz is at Doynton village hall on Saturday November 17th, 7.30 p.m. for 8.00 p.m. Tickets £12 per team of four from Mark Pitman (tel. 937 2583), Jane Stewart (937 3299) and Martin James (937 2287).

Doynton Village Market was well supported on Saturday, October 6th, despite (or maybe in spite of) the inclement weather. There was a very good range of cakes, savouries, meat and vegetables, flowers, chocolate, soaps and other craft goods. The village hall was busy with the hubbub of those buying and also partaking of the coffee and biscuits available. Come along, it is always lovely to see faces old and new, so mark up your calendars, or set your phone, for the first and third Saturdays of the month, 10.30–11.30 a.m. See you there!

Doynton phone box: We hope you have all had a wonderful summer. Thank you to all who sent postcards of their travels to the phone box; we even had a postcard from as far away as New Zealand! Our new installation will celebrate the centenary of the end of World War 1. We will be covering the box in poppies to remember each soldier: they can be knitted, crocheted, felted or made from recycled materials. We need them by November 1st. Patterns are available from Emma Dennehy (emmalouise.roch[at]gmail.com or tel. 07780 567213).

WI news: at the October meeting, we were indebted to Hughie Evans (a.k.a. the Chocolate Dinosaur) who stepped in at the last moment to give us a really interesting talk about the connections between Bristol and chocolate. Next month is our annual general meeting, and we also have a speaker who will talk about Salford Brass Mill. The competition is “a cleaning tip”. Come to Doynton village hall on Wednesday November 14th, 7.30 p.m.

Holy Trinity Church, Doynton

Remembrance Service November 11th 2018, 10.15 a.m.

There But Not There

In the week leading up to our Remembrance Service, which this year commemorates the end of the First World War 1914-1918, transparent silhouettes, as a representation of those individuals from our village who lost their lives, will be displayed in and around the church to mark this very special occasion. A prayer board will also be placed in church on which individual prayers may be posted – these prayers will form part of our Remembrance Service. Please join us for the service or to take time to visit our church – you are very welcome.
